The Nativity of the Lord

December 25, 2016 - The Nativity of the Lord

Mt 1:18-25

We are in the season of Christmas and New Year. It is a season of joy. In today's reading, we hear the fulfilment of the promise of God: "Behold, the virgin shall be with child and bear a son, and they shall name him Emmanuel," which means "God is with us." (Mt 1:23). The various events that lead to the mystery of incarnation are not that joyful and pleasant. In the context of the announcement of the birth stories of John the Baptist and Jesus we have the following sentences: "But now you will be speechless and unable to talk" (Lk 1:20). "But she was greatly troubled at what was said" (Lk 1:29). "Joseph her husband, since he was a righteous man, yet unwilling to expose her to shame, decided to divorce her quietly" (Mt 1:19). For those who undergo such trials and temptations, it is very painful and confusing. Faith alone is the antidote in such situations of life.

For anyone who wants to receive the true joy of life, he/she has to walk through the narrow road of confusion, anxiety, tension, pain and suffering. It is not an easy road. It is faith that strengthens us on the way – a faith that goes beyond all reasonings. It is faith that enables them to see the hand of God working in the events that happen. The creation account that we read in the first chapter of the Book of Genesis witnesses how the biblical author sees the hand of God in the created universe. It is a faith reading of the creation of the world. The mystery of incarnation is a miracle of faith: the faith of Mary, Joseph and thousands of people through whom the promise was kept alive beginning with the father of faith, Abraham (Mt 1:1-16).

In our lives both pleasant and unpleasant things happen. We have to trust in the promise of God and keep alive the hope in the fulfilment of the promise of God. How we respond to the events of life create us. Positive responses will create us whereas negative responses will lead us to failure, frustration and destruction. It is our responses that create us. Let us be creative by being positive and see everything in the light of faith in God who is the reason for everything that exists. Let this season of Christmas be a season of trust in God that allows us to embrace the New Year with hope in the promise of God who made us all, the children of God through the mystery of incarnation. ~Fr. Jose~

Faith Formation: Jan Minke

Merry Christmas!! I hope that all of our preparations for Christmas in our homes and in our hearts bring the joy of Christ with us, to life. "The God of glory, who is full of mercy, sent His Son!"

No Wednesday night classes this week: Christmas Break.

2nd year Confirmation students Spirit and Service due date Jan. 1, 2017. Retreat date Jan. 29, 2017.

My wish for us all is that we can relax and enjoy family and friends throughout this Holy season. May we take the time to unwrap the gift of our faith and continue to learn about it and all that it can do in our lives and the lives of others. May you make your faith your own this year, learn to love it and defend it and grow in it! Praise God for the gifts of hope, love, joy and peace in our hearts. "Glory to God in the highest and on earth peace to those on whom His favor rests!" Luke 2:14
